

Christopher Carr

Wembley, London | 07724210076 | chris.carr.dev@gmail.com | <https://www.iamchiscarr.com>

Objective

A junior front end developer eager to continue with learning the latest front end web development technologies and passionate to further grow skill set to become a proficient web developer. Happiest when making static or dynamic responsive pages/apps for the web. Enjoys solving problems to get code to work as expected. Using any free time available to learn and build personal projects to achieve a change in career as a junior frontend developer, while working in full time employment.

Strengths

Front End Web Development

HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, JQuery, responsive web design, Git, React, node.js, express.js

Communication

Communicates effectively to a wide audience whether by e-mail, telephone or in person.

Management/Teamwork

Excellent organizational, collaboration, and planning skills and works capably under pressure.

Man management experience of up to 10 teams of 6 employees per team in previous employment.

Education

Udacity Front End Nanodegree

Certificate awarded 16 August 2018

Related coursework: HTML syntax, CSS syntax, responsive design, git, Github, Document Object Model, DOM manipulation, browser events, performance, accessibility, semantics, ARIA, object-oriented programming, functional development, prototypal inheritance, promises, ES6, polyfills, transpiling, Ajax, testing, MVC paradigms, Angular, Ember, React.

Experience

Compliance Coordinator | Kelly Group | October 2016 - Present

Act as a conduit between the work site and IT department for Kelly Group

Ensure all staff are trained, compliant, and supported in all Kelly Group technology (software used in-house)

Check electronically submitted daily shift reports are to standard

Manage Kelly assets (tablets and mobile phones) out in the field and report to the administration team of changes

Good understanding of field operations

Health and safety appreciation